

The Stop Button Guide To Doctor Who 2005: Four

The fourth season of the 2005 revival of Doctor Who was a rollercoaster of emotions, from the highs of "Voyage of the Damned" to the lows of "The Doctor's Daughter." But overall, it was a strong season that continued to build on the success of the previous three.

David Tennant was once again excellent as the Doctor, and Catherine Tate was a welcome addition to the cast as his new companion, Donna Noble. Billie Piper also returned for a guest appearance in the first episode of the season, "Partners in Crime."

The Stop Button Guide to Doctor Who (2005): Series

Four by Andrew Wickliffe

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 1389 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 38 pages
Lending : Enabled

FREE

DOWNLOAD E-BOOK

The season was also notable for the of several new characters, including Martha Jones (Freema Agyeman), Captain Jack Harkness (John Barrowman), and the Master (Derek Jacobi). These characters would all go on to play major roles in the series in the years to come.

The fourth season of Doctor Who 2005 was a must-watch for fans of the show. It was a season that had something for everyone, from exciting adventures to emotional moments.

Episode Summaries

Here are brief summaries of each episode from the fourth season of Doctor Who 2005:

- Partners in Crime: The Doctor and Donna meet for the first time and investigate a mysterious alien artifact.
- The Fires of Pompeii: The Doctor and Donna travel to ancient Pompeii and try to stop a volcanic eruption.
- Planet of the Ood: The Doctor and Donna investigate a mysterious planet where the inhabitants are being enslaved by an alien race.
- The Sontaran Stratagem: The Doctor and Donna encounter the Sontarans, a race of warlike aliens.
- The Poison Sky: The Doctor and Donna must stop an alien virus from destroying Earth.
- The Doctor's Daughter: The Doctor discovers that he has a daughter, Jenny (Georgia Moffett).
- The Unicorn and the Wasp: The Doctor and Donna investigate a murder mystery in 1920s England.
- Silence in the Library: The Doctor and Donna visit a library that is said to contain every book ever written.

- Forest of the Dead: The Doctor and Donna must find a way to escape from the library before it is destroyed.
- Midnight: The Doctor and Donna are stranded on a spaceship with a mysterious entity that is driving the crew insane.
- Turn Left: The Doctor and Donna see what would happen if the Doctor had never been born.
- The Stolen Earth: The Doctor and Donna must stop the Daleks from stealing the Earth.
- Journey's End: The Doctor and Donna face their greatest challenge yet as the Daleks and Davros (Julian Bleach) team up to destroy Earth.

Character Profiles

Here are brief profiles of the main characters from the fourth season of Doctor Who 2005:

- The Doctor (David Tennant): The Doctor is a Time Lord from the planet Gallifrey. He is a brilliant scientist and adventurer who travels through time and space in his TARDIS.
- Donna Noble (Catherine Tate): Donna is a temp from Chiswick who becomes the Doctor's companion. She is a strong and independent woman who is not afraid to speak her mind.
- Martha Jones (Freema Agyeman): Martha is a medical student who joins the Doctor and Donna in the episode "Smith and Jones." She is a compassionate and intelligent woman who is always willing to help others.

- Captain Jack Harkness (John Barrowman): Captain Jack is a former Time Agent from the 51st century. He is a charming and charismatic rogue who is always up for a good time.
- The Master (Derek Jacobi): The Master is the Doctor's oldest and most dangerous enemy. He is a ruthless and cunning Time Lord who is always plotting to destroy the Doctor and conquer the universe.

Behind-the-Scenes Information

Here are some interesting behind-the-scenes facts about the fourth season of Doctor Who 2005:

- The season was originally going to be 14 episodes long, but was cut to 13 due to budget constraints.
- The episode "Midnight" was filmed in a single take, with no edits.
- The episode "Turn Left" was originally intended to be the season finale, but was moved to an earlier slot due to concerns about its dark tone.
- The season finale, "Journey's End," was the most expensive episode of Doctor Who ever produced at the time.
- The fourth season of Doctor Who 2005 was a critical and commercial success, winning several awards and boosting the show's popularity around the world.

The fourth season of Doctor Who 2005 was a rollercoaster of emotions, from the highs of "Voyage of the Damned" to the lows of "The Doctor's Daughter." But overall, it was a strong season that continued to build on the success of the previous three.

David Tennant was once again excellent as the Doctor, and Catherine Tate was a welcome addition to the cast as his new companion, Donna Noble. The season also introduced several new characters who would go on to play major roles in the series in the years to come.

The fourth season of Doctor Who 2005 was a must-watch for fans of the show. It was a season that had something for everyone, from exciting adventures to emotional moments.

The Stop Button Guide to Doctor Who (2005): Series

Four by Andrew Wickliffe

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 1389 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 38 pages
Lending : Enabled

Unlock the Secrets of Accurate Clinical Diagnosis: Discover Evidence-Based Insights from JAMA Archives Journals

Harnessing the Power of Scientific Evidence In the ever-evolving landscape of healthcare, accurate clinical diagnosis stands as the cornerstone of...

Withdrawal: Reassessing America's Final Years in Vietnam

The Controversial Withdrawal The withdrawal of American forces from Vietnam was one of the most controversial events in American history. The war...